

CHARLES H. JERMAN.

The Best Home Market in the City—
Housekeepers, Hotels and Boarding
House Quick Service.

Charles H. Jerman, who has recently succeeded his father in business at the corner of 11th and I streets; northwest, known as The Home Market, has the best system for quick delivery of any place in the city. Boarding houses, hotels and those who have dining rooms should not fail to call and inspect this place, because Mr. Jerman has every accommodation for quick delivery and he never disappoints. Fresh meats, vegetables, fish, poultry and game are always on hand and they are brought to this market fresh every day. There is no store in this city that has the reputation for keeping first class goods as his store has. The facilities for quick service are large and the outlook today for having the largest and best market are bright. Mr. Jerman is a young man having been born in 1872 near Fairfax, Va., and in 1891 he came to this city. He graduated from the Business High school when quite a young man, and by perseverance associated with his business qualification has given the people of this city a market that they appreciate, which is fully demonstrated by their patronage. The community will continue to encourage such an enterprising young man. Don't forget the place Home Market corner 11th & I sts., n.w., if you want a fresh killed Christmas turkey. The housekeeper will find this a convenient corner. When you have such convenience so near, show your appreciation by patronizing it. Don't fail to call.

Chris Xander.

The greatest wine house in the city is kept by Chris Xander, who for 39 years has maintained a reputation for keeping the purest wines and liquors in the United States. His name is a household word. When you are asked from whom did you purchase your wines and liquors, if you say Chris Xander, that alone is sufficient. There is everything in a name. Without a reputation in the community in which you live, you are not regarded a good citizen. In ancient times, in the city of Rome, if a man was unlawfully seized and when he said, "I am a Roman citizen," was enough for his captors. So it is with Mr. Chris Xander. These wines and liquors are from Xander's.

WHERE TO PURCHASE.

If you want first class goods for the holidays, THE BEE invites its readers to the business houses that are published in its issue this week and its special holiday addition December 23d. In THE BEE this week will be seen a number of new advertisements more than all others weekly papers published combined. THE BEE goes to the homes and residences of the leading as well as the poorest people in the city. For that reason THE BEE is the greatest advertising medium for colored as well as the white trade than any other weekly paper in the city.

House and Herman
7th and I streets northwest keep on hand some of the finest goods in the country. If you want to fit your bed room, parlor, or any other place go to this popular firm. See the advertisement in another column.

Pels
is the place to go if you want first class shoes. This is Heilbrun's old stand 402 to 404 7th street northwest. You will find polite clerks willing and ready at all times to wait on you. The best place in the city to be fitted. A bad foot is given a shape at this place and a pretty one made out of a bad one. Give him a call.

George and Co.
If you want a good suit of clothes for your boy or for yourself; if you want underwear; first class shirts, caps, hats on anything to make you look well and keep you comfortable you should not hesitate to visit George and Co., 907 7th st. northwest. Just read his advertisement.

Good Whiskies.
There is nothing more enjoyable to a household than to sit at your old friend to a glass of wine or a drink of good whiskey. People who talk temperance drink more whiskey than any body else. It is no more to have good whiskey in the house than it is to occupy a good seat in a theatre. The Bee has several high toned business houses published where you can be served in good order. The old and reliable Xander 907 7th st. northwest, Kessel 425-10th st. northwest and Louis Rothschild Co., 405-7th st. northwest.

The Little ones.
Don't forget the little ones and those who have a sweet tooth. For Christmas candies go to the candy kitchens 908 7th street and 1614 14th st. northwest and P. Skiados 1522 7th st. northwest the best candy manufacturers in the city. Just read their advertisements in this issue of The Bee.

$100,000 to
If you have no money to purchase goods from any of these stores and you think you will have a green Christmas go to the Surety Loan Co., room 1 Warder Bldg., 9th and F streets northwest. You can get all the money you want. If you can't be supplied, then go to the old reliable Burnstine 4 1/2 and Pa ave., northwest. There is no cause for you to be despondent.

Read THE BEE and be happy.
Go to Jermans 11th and I streets northwest.

If you want fine gloves indeed the finest in the United States go to the Louvre Glove store whose advertisement is in another column of this paper and the place that is managed entirely by young ladies. There are two stores. The only stores in the city that can fit any body. The place that will please you. Send your wives, sisters, brothers, cousins and aunts to the Louvre Glove store.

The public schools will close Tuesday, December 23d, and open January 5th.

GLOVES FOR

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Of the many pharmacists of this city Mr. Frank Davis, who was formerly with Dr. Wm. Schafer 509 E street northwest, is one of the best compounders of drugs in that profession. He is a genial young man and if you want pure drugs call at his store. Mention The Bee always.

SAMUEL G. STEWART.

One of the best known young men in this city is Mr. Samuel G. Stewart who by industry and perseverance has made his way to the topmost round of the ladder. No man has made better headway and no young man has more friends among all classes of citizens than Mr. Stewart. He is congenial, kind and a good companion at all times. Do not pass him by while enjoying yourselves.

Atlanta University.

Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 15, 1902.
Atlanta University defeated Talladega College last Friday in football by the decisive score of 17 to 6. The game was clean throughout. Atlanta excelled Talladega in every department of the game.
The score between Atlanta and the Baptist College a week previously was 5 to 0 in favor of Atlanta.
